

Pattern Review

Tree's Up! Lights On!

By Sandy Gervais
Pieces from My Heart

How would you like to do a quilt that has a scrappy look, is easy to piece, and has no points to match within the blocks. This is the pattern for you, and it can easily be done in time for the Holidays. It is a great pattern for the beginner or more advanced piecer, just remember that it is scrappy.

Pieces from my Heart has put this pattern together for you to use fat quarters and freezer paper. You trace the pattern, iron your fat quarters, cut, swap and now it is time to sew and have fun watching your trees appear.

Come on in to Country Traditions to see the finished quilt, and get your pattern today. So you can also have yours on display in time for the Holidays.

Mary